NEWSPAPER CORNER

December 2nd, 2025

About: B.S. International School once again features in "The Times of India" newspaper for successfully conducting its ANNUAL FUNCTION 2025. The function was a great hit and left a long-lasting impression on Parents and students.

A fest of energy, unity, and expression

The Annual Day of BS International School was celebrated with great excitement and pride. The celebration was graced by the chief guest, principal, and senior dignitaries.

In her welcome speech, the principal appreciated the hard work and dedication of the students and teachers that contributed to the school's achievements throughout the year. This year, the event was presented under two vibrant themes - "Across the Globe" and "Jungle Jamboree." Students of higher classes showcased the diversity, culture, and unity of different countries around the world through colourful dance performances, songs, and skits under the theme "Across the Globe."

nie SCHOOL SCOOP

A tapestry of tales

Summer Fields School, Greater Kailash-1, organised The Literary Fiesta 2025, a week-long celebration of languages, literature and culture across English, French, German, Hindi and Sanskrit. The event was graced by chairman Inbar Day Gupta, principal Shree Agarwal, Ashok Kanya (academic advisor) and Jyoti Kanjia (principal BSC).

The Fiesta opened with the felicitation of dignitaries and a vibrant multicultural programme featuring an English and Hindi song, a French fashion show, and a German performance where students portrayed historical German personalities.

Throughout the week, students engaged in a variety of literary activities including Book in the Bag presentations, Card Making with German phrases, Literary Movie, Hindi Inter-class Poetry Writing Competition and The Battle of Books quiz. Hindi activities featured group singing, slogan writing, poetry recitation, advertisement staging and debates, while Sanskrit events included Shloka, proverb, and Siddhantia recitations.

Key attractions were the dynamic Character Parade and Taboo formation, French and German cuisine stalls, and the interactive Spin the Wheel German activity celebrating creativity, expression and linguistic diversity.
